Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:
The mission of the National Energy Education Development (NEED) Project is to promote an energy conscious and educated society by creating effective networks of students, educators, business, and government and community leaders to design and deliver objective, 2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No
If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 2,970,607. including grants of $ 995,905.) (Revenue $ 244,706.) Workshops and Conferences: Throughout the school-year, NEED offers teacher professional development on energy and energy issues including the science of energy, energy sources, electricity, transportation, and residential and school energy efficiency and conservation. The workshops are one-day in length and NEED provides participating educators with substitute reimbursement, classroom curriculum materials, and professional development credits. In any given year, NEED hosts approximately 600 workshops in diverse geographic areas.
There are some special topic workshops that include content specific to certain energy issues - i.e. solar, wind, oil and natural gas, efficiency and conservation. All curriculum taught and provided at the workshops is aligned to the National Science Education Standards and to Kits and Materials: NEED's mission is to design and deliver comprehensive energy education curriculum. All NEED curriculums is updated with new data, technologies, and issues on an annual basis.

NEED's hands-on approach to energy education requires that educators be provided the tools and resources needed in the classroom. This often means the provision of hands-on science equipment and tools. NEED's Teacher Advisory Board and Curriculum Committee create kits for multiple grade levels and for multiple content areas. These kits are integrated with the printed NEED curriculum and are provided to educators attending NEED workshops. NEED curriculum materials are designed at four reading levels - primary, elementary, intermediate, and secondary. Each guide contains a teacher guide and student lessons

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 847,107. including grants of $) (Revenue $) Program Administration: NEED's mission is to design and deliver comprehensive energy education curriculum and training. As part of this effort, NEED establishes and administers many signature programs for agencies, companies and organizations. Most of these programs including the curriculum, training workshops, and kits mentioned throughout NEED's federal Form 990, but these programs also include turn-key staff support of local schools - providing classroom visits, local community support for programming, in-class teaching opportunities, teacher support and classroom trouble-shooting, design and delivery of websites to support programmatic goals, and overall administration of the energy education programs NEED has underway each year. In addition, NEED has developed strong grant-making capability Schedule I, Part I, Line 2: Each of the grant programs administered by NEED has a rubric designed to select the highest quality grant application. The rubric includes evaluation on the following items: energy content (related to the subject grant), goal setting and evaluation techniques, community involvement and partnerships, student leadership, and intended outcomes. In addition, all grants are evaluated based on the functionality and applicability of the proposed budget as aligned to the proposed project.

Does the budget proposed provide adequate support for the program proposed?

Are all budget requests germane to the proposed program? Grants are also evaluated based on criteria established for each program - including public vs. private schools, grade level, subject matter of the proposed grant application, geographic footprint of the grant program, and grant timeline. Each grant is reviewed by two or more reviewers selected from subject matter and grant professionals within NEED's network. Scores are tabulated, the extent to which the grant meets established and published criteria is reviewed, and grantees are notified of the success of the proposal. Grant recipients submit W-9 forms to NEED and are given one year to complete the program. Upon completion, the project report is delivered to NEED and includes information such as final budget details, narrative success of the project and examples of student work as appropriate.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11: A federal Form 990 draft is provided to the Executive Director, Treasurer and Audit Committee for review. Revisions as needed are made by Raffa, P.C. and a final draft is delivered to the Executive Director for full Board of Directors review. Any additional revisions are made by Raffa, P.C., then the Form 990 is filed with the Internal Revenue Service.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: The NEED Board of Directors is small and interactions and activities are easily and regularly monitored. At least once per year, the policy is reviewed by the Board of Directors and new Conflict of Interest forms are completed and returned to NEED. In addition, NEED has a Conflict of Interest Policy for staff. Disclosures are made annually.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15: The NEED Board of Directors annually reviews the compensation for the Executive Director and considers all aspects of the position requirements, success based on an annually agreed upon set of goals and action items, and the overall financial health of NEED. In 2010, the Board of Directors asked a Board Member Committee to undertake a review of the Executive Director's salary to determine comparability in the regional area, comparability within range of position requirements, and to remain competitive in retaining the current skill set and organizational memory. The Board of Directors, acting independently from all NEED staff including the Executive Director, consulted consistently cited salary surveys including those from the American Society of Association Executives, BoardSource, and the Washington Council of Agencies. In addition, the Board of Directors reviewed a similar salary survey done for a partner non-profit in 2009. Annually, the Executive Committee reviews the performance of the Executive Director, sets a percentage of salary increase, and a possible percentage derived bonus should NEED's organizational performance and fiscal health warrant it. NEED's Executive Committee shares its recommendation with the Board of Directors immediately following the Executive Committee's discussion at the annual December Board Meeting. The Board of Directors then approves the decision. The Executive Committee issues the review of performance and the upcoming year's salary to the Executive Director and Accounting Manager for filing and action. The Executive Directors salary is reaffirmed annually per the by-laws at the Spring Board of Directors Meeting.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19: NEED makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements available to the public on request. Also, a section of the need.org site is set aside for the audited financial statements, Form 990 and annual report.
