
WEATHERIZATION

Weatherization helps us protect the inside of our buildings from the weather outside.

If cold air or warm air from outside leaks inside, our heating and cooling systems inside work harder.

To save money and energy, use insulation, weatherstripping, and caulking to seal drafts and air leaks.

NEED
National Energy Education Development