

Youth Energy Summit 2026

July 12-17, 2026

University of Maryland,
Baltimore County

The Constellation Youth Energy Summit was created to bring together young people who are interested in helping to solve our nation's energy and environmental challenges and exploring clean energy careers. If you have an interest in STEM and the energy industry this is the place for you!

The program is free to attend including transportation from outside the greater Baltimore area. All participants receive an iPad to use throughout the week—and it's yours to keep after the Summit!
